LANGUAGE COMPREHENSIVE TEST*Questions (1 – 5) :

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below :

I had hardly settled to work on the next issue of the morninger when the boss stormed into the room raging. Having joined his tabloid only a couple of months ago, I had come to think of him as an urbane, upright and meticulous man. The outburst, caused by a minor slip in the report filed by me yesterday, unnerved me completely. “Was this the man who patted me on the shoulder only the other day for covering the Prime Minister’s visit to the state ?” – I asked myself in vain. I wrote out my resignation and walked out of the office in a stupor. (105 words)

Questions (6 – 10) :

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below :

My wife, daughter and I were travelling in a rented car through Nottingham, England, on our way to a cousin's home in the northern suburbs, I became thoroughly confused by the maze of circular and one-way streets. Finally, we spotted a policeman and pulled up to ask directions. We were surprised when he removed his tall helmet, opened the back door and slid in beside our daughter. "It'll be much easier to show you", he explained.

Off we went through a series of left and right turns, traffic lights and even a short jaunt up a one-way lane the wrong way. Twenty minutes later we arrived at a main intersection. "Now you'll be all right", announced our guide.

"Just turn here, stay on the road for eight or nine kilometers and you're there." With that, he opened the door, got out, replaced his helmet and strode briskly off. (153 words)

Read the following poem and answer the questions given below :

Breakfast

Of all the meals that glad my day
My morning one's the best;
Purveyed me on a silver tray,
Immaculately dressed.

I rouse me when the dawn is bright
I leap into the sea,
Returning with a rare delight
To honey, toast and tea.

My appetite was razor edged
When I was in my prime;
To eggs and bacon I was pledged...
Alas ! the March of Time

For now a genial old gent
With journal on my knee,
I sip and take with vast content
My honey, toast and tea.

So set me up for my delight
The harvest of the bee;
Brown, crispy toast with butter bright,
Ceylon – two cups or three

Let others lunch or dinner praise,
But I regale with glee,
As I regard with grateful gaze
Just honey, toast and tea.
