Punctuality is a habit which must be cultivated by every cultured person. It is the mark of civilization and culture. It has been rightly called as the 'soul of businesses. In our daily life, we have to attend to various types of business. This brings us in contact with other people. We hardly realize that in being late, how much annoyance and worry unnecessarily is caused to others. Nelson the philosopher used to say that he owes his success to punctuality in his life. If a man has various duties to attend to, he must be punctual. Otherwise, his life will be a failure. It is not easy thing to be punctual. It requires a man all the energy to regulate his life, if he wants to be punctual in every business. Unpunctuality invites trouble and worry. A man who is punctual and keeps his appointment, is sure to be held in high esteem by others. Everyone has confidence in him. Everyone trusts him because he keeps his word.

a. Why is punctuality necessary?

b. Why do people respect one who is punctual?

Jawaharlal Nehru, our former prime minister, had time and again emphasized that India must try to bring about a socialistic pattern of society. But we may ask what this 'Socialistic pattern of society means?' Is it just another name for communism? The answer is no. There is a vast difference between the Russian notion of communism and our ideal of socialist pattern. In Russia, every form of enterprise is in the hands of the government. Whereas, in India, individuals will always be allowed to carry on private business. We hope to bring about this new socialistic pattern slowly and steadily. It will be a kind of 'bloodless revolution'.

a) What is the difference between the socialistic pattern and Russian communism?

b) What did Jawaharlal Nehru tell us again and again?
